

ACCESS for ELLs Standards Expert Review July–September 2022

The Center for Applied Linguistics (CAL) is pleased to announce upcoming opportunities for educators to be a part of the development of ACCESS for ELLs. Educators are invited to serve as Standards Experts for new ACCESS for ELLs test items.

Who can participate?

Any educator who has experience working with students in grades 1–12 in a WIDA-member state during the previous two years is invited to participate.

What will educators do?

Standards Experts will:

- Complete a non-disclosure agreement (NDA).
- Watch a tutorial video to understand how to review draft test items.
- Review sets of test items for grade-level appropriateness of the language and content
- Enter feedback into an electronic questionnaire.
- Receive $25 compensation for each set of test items reviewed.

I'm interested! What should I do?

Complete an application at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/RWZMGQ2>. For full consideration, apply by Sunday, June 12, 2022.

In the application, you will be asked to provide:

- Your contact information
- Information about your teaching experience
- Information about your availability
- A current resume or CV

Educators invited to serve as Standard Experts will be contacted beginning the week of June 13, 2022.

If you have any questions about these activities, contact Alex Herbert (aherbert@cal.org).

Thank you for your interest in this important test development activity!
